

Letter from Gilbert Grosvenor to Will H. Hays, May 24, 1938, with transcript

P Twentieth Century Fox May 24, 1938 The Honorable Will H. Hays, President, Motion Picture Producers- Distributors of America, 28 West 44th Street, New York, N.Y. Dear Mr. Hays:

About six months ago Colonel Joy came to see me, on your recommendation, in reference to a biographical film of my father-in-law, the late Alexander Graham Bell, which the Twentieth Century Fox Corporation was undertaking.

I had a delightful conference with Colonel Joy. He stated that this spring he would advise me of the progress on the work. I have not heard from Colonel Joy, and as the two daughters of Alexander Graham Bell (Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor and Mrs. David Fairchild) and other relatives and friends are constantly making inquiry because of frequent press notices about the proposed Alexander Graham Bell film, I am taking the liberty of asking that you advise me where I may reach Colonel Joy to ascertain the present status of the Alexander Graham Bell biographical film.

With kindest remembrances, I am

Yours sincerely, (s) GILBERT GROSVENOR

P Col. Joy May 24, 1938 The Honorable Will H. Hays, President, Motion Picture Producers- Distributors of America, 28 West 44th Street, New York, N.Y. Dear Mr. Hays:

About six months ago Colonel Joy came to see me, on your recommendation, in reference to a biographical film of my father-in-law, the late Alexander Graham Bell, which the Twentieth Century Fox Corporation was undertaking.

Library of Congress

I had a delightful conference with Colonel Joy. He stated that this spring he would advise me of the progress on the work. I have not heard from Colonel Joy, and as the two daughters of Alexander Graham Bell (Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor and Mrs. David Fairchild) and other relatives and friends are constantly making inquiry because of frequent press notices about the proposed Alexander Graham Bell film, I am taking the liberty of asking that you advise me where I may reach Colonel Joy to ascertain the present status of the Alexander Graham Bell biographical film.

With kindest remembrances, I am

Yours sincerely, (s) GILBERT GROSVENOR